

Thorp Alumni Association, Inc. Scholarship Program

The purpose of the Thorp High School Alumni Association is to promote continued education, scholarship, fellowship, cooperation and communication between faculty and current and former students of Thorp High School, and to award yearly scholarships to Thorp graduating seniors.

As a senior of Thorp High School, you are invited to apply for one of the TAA's annual scholarships. Anyone who is planning to attend a school of higher education in a certified program may apply for a TAA scholarship.

- Must complete one full semester and show proof of registration for a following semester or registered to graduate prior to payment being made. Recipients will be provided with a Verification of Enrollment Form.

Your application should be returned to the Thorp High School guidance counselor by April 4, 2025. All names and identifying information on the balance of your application will be concealed prior to review by the Executive Committee of the TAA.
